

University Retirees Volunteer Center (URVC) Snapshot

What is the University of Minnesota Retirees Volunteer Center?

The University Retirees Volunteer Center (URVC) provides opportunities for University of Minnesota Twin Cities retirees to use their knowledge, skills and interests in volunteer service to University of Minnesota internal and external communities.

CURRENTLY

503

University of Minnesota—Twin Cities retiree volunteers contribute approximately

7,000 hours annually

with projects inside and outside the University of Minnesota.

Who are University Retirees Center Volunteers?

URVC volunteers are retired University of Minnesota faculty and staff representing the various academic, administrative and service units of the University of Minnesota Twin Cities.

University retirees provide volunteer services offered through the URVC to University units and external community partners.

QUESTIONS?

For more information contact the URVC Office at urvc@umn.edu

What are University Retirees Center Objectives?

- To provide opportunities for service that are rewarding to for volunteers
- To gather, assess, and deliver relevant information about opportunities for volunteer service within the University and the Twin Cities communities at large
- To act as a referral service for University units and community agencies seeking volunteers

University of Minnesota Retirees Center Volunteers in Action

- > Academic Integrity Matters (UMN Student Development)
- > Characterizing Ankle Proprioception in Older Adults Research Study (School of Kinesiology)
- > Retired Faculty Mentorship (OUR/URS)
- > Community Teacher Health Inter-professional Education (Academic Health Sciences)
- > Exercise and Cognitive Study for Adults 65+ (School of Nursing)
- > Mandela Washington Fellows Leadership Institute (CEHD, HHH School of Public Affairs)
- > Rarig Theater Greeter/Usher (CLA)
- > Minnesota English Language Program (MELP) tutor, University of Minnesota
- > Reader/Writer Program (7th-8th grade; Minneapolis and St. Paul Public Schools)
- > Minnesota Urban League Debate judge; History Day judge; K-12 science project judge
- > Airport Foundation: Travelers Assistance Volunteers

*The above list represents a sampling of volunteer opportunities and is not an exhaustive list.

